WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10

"Go Ahead Caller, You're on the Air"

Fred Andrle, May 31-reired host Open Line for WOSU Public Media

Mike Harden, Columnist for The Columbus Dispatch

Fred Andrle retired on May 29 from a 20-year career in talk radio. Not the brash, screaming, vulgar talk radio spewed by some hosts on some stations, but the voice of reason that probed diligently, but sensitively the hundreds of guests and listened sincerely and attentively to countless callers over the years.

Fred came to WOSU intending to stay for a short time, but became an icon in central Ohio, known for his intelligent, well-prepared dialogue with civic leaders, activists, celebrities, victims, politicians, authors and nearly every genre of society.

You'll want to be there as the tables turn when equally revered Columbus legend Dispatch columnist Mike Harden queries Fred about his life, his passions, his journey through decades of guests and callers.

Two seasoned journalists of different media share stories, philosophies and laughs for the CMC audience.

A once-in-a-lifetime not to be missed.

TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 5:00 – 7:00 COSI

What a drag! Impersonation at its Finest!

Karla Rothan, Executive Director, Stonewall Columbus, moderates what promises to be a very lively discussion with some of Columbus's most outrageous and raucous entertainers!

Why do they choose to perform in drag? And, how does this assimilate with their real life personalities and lifestyle choices? Socially, psychologically and culturally where does drag fit and how is it perceived by the straight and the GLBT communities?

Sile will perform as her drag king character LUSTER or we may see some of the ultra femme drag queen named LUSTIVIOUS Dela Virgion! Or maybe some Sammy Davis, Jr!
Andrew Levitt brings new life and new meaning to Nina West!

Candid, opinionated and passionate about Columbus, its leaders, it's strengths, its weaknesses and its future, no one tells it like Bill Smith and few have earned the right to.
